1. Target User Persona: Corporate Requester (Employee)

The Empathy Map captures knowledge about user behaviors, attitudes, goals, and pain points when requesting a rental vehicle for business trips.

2. Empathy Map Canvas Breakdown

THINKS & FEELS	HEARS
• Thinks: 'Will I get the vehicle on time for my client meeting?' • Thinks: 'Why is approval taking so long?' • Feels: Anxious, frustrated with paperwork, eager for immediate status updates.	• Hears colleagues complain about lost paper requisition forms. • Hears management ask for strict expense tracking and travel audit logs.
SAYS & DOES Says: 'I need a vehicle for tomorrow's site visit.' • Does: Sends emails to transport desk, makes phone calls, fills out manual request slips.	SEEKS / GOALS Simple 1-click Service Portal form. • Automated approval routing. • Instant email notifications upon confirmation.

3. Pains vs Gains Summary

Pains: 1. Unclear vehicle availability.
2. Manual email follow-ups.
3. Lack of request history.

Gains: 1. Single portal form for Car Rental Requests.
2. Real-time RITM tracking.
3. Automated Incident creation when cars are unavailable.
